

RIGNAL W. BALDWIN, JR., ESQ.

Mr. Baldwin practices in the areas of business litigation, professional liability, and products liability. He also serves as an appointed mediator for the federal and state courts, and is a member of ADR Maryland, an organization of trial attorneys trained and certified for alternative dispute resolution.

He graduated from Dickinson College (B.A. 1969) and from the University of Baltimore School of Law with Honors (J.D. 1975), where he was an Editor in Chief of the Law Review. Prior to law school, Mr. Baldwin served as an Infantry Officer in the United States Marine Corps and was honorably discharged in 1972 at the rank of Captain.

Mr. Baldwin is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, a member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference, a Fellow of the Maryland Bar Foundation, and a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. He has been recognized for his skill as a trial attorney by induction into the American Board of Trial Advocates, peer designation in the Best Lawyers in America publication, peer designation in SuperLawyers, and inclusion in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. He is a recipient of the Maryland Bar Foundation Professional Legal Excellence Award for the Advancement of Professional Competence, and leadership awards from the Equal Justice Council.

He is past Chair and a current member of the Maryland State Bar Judicial Appointments Committee, Chair and of the Professionalism Committee, past Chair of the Committee on Laws, a member of the ABA Litigation Section, and a member of the Maryland Court of Appeals Commission on Professionalism. Mr. Baldwin has been a faculty member on MICPEL and NITA programs for the continuing legal education of attorneys, and a faculty member for the professionalism course required for admission to practice in Maryland.
